SAN JOSE. SAN JOSE.
BERFORD & CO'S LINE
OF EXPRESS MAIL STAGES,
HALL & CRANDAL, PROPRIETORS,

Are now running every morning to San Jose, leaving Berford & Co's office in the plaza, at 8 o'clock, A. M., and the City Hotel in San Jose at 7 o'clock, A. M.

The reduced rate of fare puts it in the power of every one to visit the beautiful and healthful valley of Santa Clara. There is no more charming drive in California than that from San Francisco to San Jose, and as one is whirled rapidly through the oak openings and across the level plains under the skillful driving of Professors Dillon or Crandal, who drive their own coaches, he finds that pleasure is united with business, and wonders he has never made the trip before.

The great advantage this line possesses over all others, is that the Stages were bought expressly for the road, and with a particular attention to safety, while the drivers, who have served a long apprenticeship from New England to Mexico, make the quickest time and never meet with accidents, which are so likely to occur with the old fashioned stage coaches. We invite our friends to give the line a trial.

☞ The following is the epitaph written by Gen. Jackson, on his wife. It is a beautiful production:

"Here lie the remains of Mrs. Rachael Jackson, who died the 22d December, 1828, aged 61. Her face was fair, her person pleasing, her temper amiable, and her heart kind. She delighted in relieving the wants of her fellow-creatures, and cultivated that divine pleasure by the most liberal and unpretending methods. To the poor she was a benefactress—to the rich an example—to the wretched a comforter—to the prosperous an ornament: her piety went hand-in-hand with her benevolence, and she thanked her Creator for being permitted to do good. A being so gentle, and yet so virtuous, slander might wound, but could not dishonor. Even Death, when he tore her from the arms of her husband, could but transplant her to the bosom of her God."

NEGRO POMP.—The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, in a late letter, says:

"Amid the displays of Paris workmanship, no articles have attracted the curious and the saunterers more than two diadems and several swords, in massive gold, wrought for the sublime Emperor of Hayti, Faustin I. One of the crowns is surmounted by eight eagles, and weighs four pounds; the other, of two pounds, is formed of oak and laurel leaves. The execution of both is admirable; the cost, a hundred and fifty thousand dollars."

No More Whistling.—The city of Galena, Ill., has passed an ordinance prohibiting whistling within the city limits, on pain of a penalty not less than $10, nor exceeding $500. The effect of this law must be most salutary. Of course, people will have no cause to "wet their whistles" any more, and temperance must be universal.

A decision of a somewhat novel character has been rendered in the Criminal Court at St. Louis. The Judge decided that a merchant who imports goods and pays duty on them to the United States, acquires thereby a right to sell them without taking out any city, county or state license, and quotes decisions of the Supreme Court to sustain his position.

A wag who had listened to a long and insipid address delivered before a public assembly, was asked how he liked the speaker. 'Very well,' he replied, 'to-night has augured well for his future success as a bore.'

Some sensible chap says truly, that a man who tries to raise himself by scandalizing others, might just as well sit down on a wheelbarrow, and undertake to wheel himself.

GEN. CASS IN TAMMANY HALL.

We subjoin a synopsis of Gen. Cass' remarks in Tammany Hall on the occasion of his brief sojourn in New York city at the close of the recent session of Congress. They possess much significancy, coming as they do from the recognized head of one of the former division of the Democratic party of New York. He sees the necessity of ignoring all past differences; and his remarks on these topics breathe the right spirit. A spirit of tolerance should be cherished by all—and the advice of Gen. Cass, considering the nature of his audience, will tend powerfully to its wide diffusion:

Gen. Cass was then called upon to address those present, who numbered several hundreds. He thanked the democracy for the kind and welcome reception which they had extended to him. He did not, however, come with the intention of making a speech, for he had heard enough of them, at Washington, for all necessary purposes. (Laughter) The settlement of the slavery question was not due to him or to Congress. The result of that struggle is due to the American people. A mighty voice from the East and the West, the North and the South, said, "Peace, be still," and the troubled elements were quieted. (Applause.) To that we owe the settlement of that great question, which at one time threatened the integrity of the Union, and the dissolution of this great confederacy. Many an eye watched the progress of that question in Europe, and many a heart throbbed with hope were those whose principle is that man can govern himself; and if a settlement of that question failed, the cause of Republicanism failed everywhere, not be again attempted, except after a long lapse of years, and perhaps ages. It was a fearful crisis fellow-citizens; but supported by the God of our fathers and by our God, we are yet one country, one people, one government. (Enthusiastic applause.)

"And now, fellow-citizens of the Democratic party, let us say one word more and I have done. We have now a national platform of American principles on which we can all stand, and we can only exist as a national party. We must recollect that the constitution was the result of compromise. In some quarters the term compromise is objectionable. But, let me ask you, is not the whole of life made up of compromise. If we say we will give way to no one, no one will give way to us. If you don't respect the feelings of others, no one will respect yours. (Applause.) You have an American platform to stand on. We have had our trials and our sufferings. There is no party that has not had its moments of trial and suffering. We have been divided, but we have again got together; and having done so, let me give you one word of advice. It is this: Never talk of the past, never throw our past difficulties in the face of any one. (Applanse.) You have nothing to do with the past, except as a matter of experience. Your business now is to let every man come into the fold who desires it. After they get in, if they don't their duty, do turn them out. But let me beg of you to receive all that are ready to come in. Stand on the platform of 1840, and on the principles which are embodied in it. Indeed, you are now standing on it; and those principles are founded on the ability of man to govern himself. This is the foundation-stone of American Democracy. Let us come together, and act together in the full spirit of forgiveness, on those principles, and I promise you that you will triumph over your opponents as much as you could wish." (Applause.)

To be Happy, pay the printer, love the gals, and always walk in the sunshine. The latter will keep you in spirits, and the former in good appetite.

MARTIN VAN BUREN.

A model presiding officer was Mr. Van Buren. The attentive manner in which he listened, or seemed to listen, to each submissive speaker, no matter how dull the subject or how stupid the orator, the placidity of his countenance, unruffled in the midst of excitement, the modest dignity of his deportment, the gentlemanly ease of his address, his well modulated voice and sympathetic smile extorted admiration from even an opposing Senate; while the proper firmness he displayed on all occasions, the readiness with which he met and repulsed any attack upon the privileges or dignity of the chair, the more conspicuous in contrast with the quiet indifference with which he entertained any merely personal assault, gained him the good will of all beholders.

He had served an apprenticeship to his high office by a senatorial career of six years, and qualified himself by the proper discharge of the duties of the other. The peculia delicacy and decorum which he had manifested during that term of service, in times of high party excitement, and in a decided minority, had won him great renown, and seemed to justify the general belief that he was intended for a larger sphere of action. Always self-controlled, he never uttered a word direct or by inuendo, either from premeditation, or in the heat of excitement, which need have wounded the feelings of a political opponent in open or in secret session. Master of his own passions, he soon learned to command those of other men. By study of himself, he acquired a knowledge of mankind. With a countenance always open, and thought always concealed, he invited without returning confidence. Indeed, the character the great modern poet gives to one of his heroes will serve as an epitome, mutatis mutandis, of Mr. Van Buren's.

"He was the mildest mannered man,
That ever scuttled ship or cut a throat;
With such true feelings of the gentleman,
You rarely could divine his real thought."

☞ Yesterday was celebrated by the Jews of this city with great form and solemnity, it being the tenth day of the seventh month of the year 5611, according to the Jewish calendar, and the anniversary of the Day of Atonement. It was observed as a day of fasting and prayer, and the strict members of the creed tasted neither food nor water for twenty-four hours, which was a severe penance this hot weather. The Portuguese Synagogue on Canal street was crowded throughout the day, a great many ladies being in attendance, and a discourse was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Nathan. The German Jew congregation, of which Mr. Gutheim is the pastor, held their meeting in the large dining-room of the St. Louis Hotel, as their synagogue on Rampart street is not yet finished. The ceremonies consisted of forms of prayer and chaunts. The priests were dressed in white robes with caps. They all wore scarfs, while others were robed in white linen, to evidence their penitence. They would occasionally prostrate themselves and bow their heads to the ground. The ceremonies were very imposing, and the day was observed with great respect. Many of the stores were closed in consequence. [N. O. Pic. 17th ult.

☞ Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, the latest London papers advise us, are still rusticating among the mountains of Scotland. Her Majesty, by the way, was the heroine of a feat which is seldom performed even by the hardy peasants of that part of the country, the ascent of the rugged mountain of Ben na bourd, some 3900 feet above the level of the sea. During the toilsome ascent her Majesty proved herself to be a first-rate pedestrian, and had the advantage over Prince Albert in more than one contest for superiority in surmounting the more rugged points, where the hands perform fully as important a part of the locomotion as the feet, and eventually the Queen reached the summit the first of the party. The summit of the mountain is almost void of vegetation, having the peculiar weather-beaten appearance common to Scotch mountains of like elevation.

When Haynau arrived in Cologne, after his interview with the London brewers, the hackmen refused to permit him to enter their carriages. The porters wouldn't carry his baggage, and the police had to keep the mob away from the wretch.

PROCLAMATION!!!

The Governor of the State of California, to all to whom these presents may come; Greeting:

In compliance with the long established and appropriate custom of our fathers, as well as in accordance with his own feelings, the undersigned, Governor of the State of California, hereby recommends that Saturday, the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, be set apart and observed by the people of California, as a day of solemn thanksgiving to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, for the unnumbered blessings bestowed by Him upon our young State and people; and especially for our admission into the happy family of States.

Given under my hand, at the Pueblo de San Jose, the fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and of the Independence of the United States, the seventy-fifth.

PETER H. BURNETT.

SHIP MASTERS.

In an article published the other day, we made some brief reference to the abuse of seamen. We wish, and intend, to do full justice to all parties on all proper occasions, without fear or favor. Far be it from us to wish to do the least wrong to any. San Francisco contains as many good ship masters, we do not doubt, as any other port. It also contains about as large a number of vessels of every sort, as are to be found in any other harbor of the world; thus concentrating, at this spot, a very extensive circle of business interests, and attracting to this place the eyes of a multitude from every quarter of the globe.

The situation of the commander of a ship on a long and dangerous voyage, like that to San Francisco, is oftentimes peculiarly trying and difficult. He is emphatically alone—"himself against a host"—without the sympathies of most of his passengers, if he chance to have any; and often incurring the positive hatred of his officers and crew.

All his previous habits render it difficult in the extreme, for him to brook the slightest opposition from any one. Even ashore, he bears with the worst possible grace, any obstacles in the way of his purposes; and often betray, in doing so, the petulance of unrestrained childhood. But the amenities of life which surround him at home, qualify so much all his actions, that it is not easy to say what sort of a man he may be when at sea, unrestrained by any control. At home, he may be a devout and praying "member of the church, in good and regular standing," a "Son of Temperance," and the husband of a most amiable and interesting wife; while at sea, or in foreign ports, he may be a drunkard, tyrannical towards his crew, licentious, and an uncomfortable "old man."

We do not intend to say that all captains are such; quite the reverse. But the danger in the use of irresponsible power is too great for us to expect a different result in multiplied instances. And all those who know what occurs at sea in long voyages and in ports of foreign countries, will fully bear out what we say.

At the same time, the laws, with the best intentions for the good of all, have constituted the "master" almost absolute despots over the lives and fortunes of such as are under his "command." We have even heard of passengers being threatened with being "put in irons," if the threat were not actually put in effect. The introduction of a powerful and widely spread steam marine will be likely to prevent the recurrence of many similar instances in the future. No poor unprotected female will ever be obliged to leap from the deck of a steamship into the sea, to save herself from the "master's" brutal lusts, or abandon her life to sin, shame and misery.

Can the future be improved? can a sailor always be sure of kindness and impartiality at the hand of the master, without being tricked and duped, and misused in a foreign port? Will it be done? Not until consuls of our government are in almost every case better men, above the suspicion of connivance with the masters of vessels; and not until the ship's captain shall have become as good a man, under "the fear of God all the day long," as well abroad as at home.

DEATH OF COL. LAMB.—We regret that it becomes our duty this morning, to announce the death of Col. Richard M. Lamb, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio. He was attacked some days since, by cholera, but had so far recovered as to be out of his room, when he suffered a collapse, which terminated fatally, about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. His funeral was attended yesterday afternoon, by the Masonic fraternity, accompanied by a band of music, and by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

FUNERAL OF MAYOR BIGELOW.

The remains of Hon. Hardin Bigelow reached Sacramento on Thursday morning, in charge of Ald. Sharron, of this city, it being the first announcement of the fatal termination of the disease. A deep sensation was created throughout the city.

The Common Council was immediately called together, and preparations made for the funeral, which took place at 12 o'clock. Appropriate resolutions were adopted by his official associates, referring in the highest terms to the virtues, honors, and self sacrifices of the deceased.

At 12 o'clock the last sad offices were paid to the dead, the procession following the hearse to the grave in the following order:

The Marshal of the City and his Assistants,
Music,
Pall Bearers,
Hearse,
Mourners,
The Governor of the State,
President of the Com. Council and Recorder,
The Committee from San Francisco,
The Watch and Police,
State and County Officers,
Brig. Gen. Winn and Staff, and other Military Officers of the U. S. and California, Citizens.

FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS.—In making appointments for California, the President and his Cabinet, without designing it, of course, hit upon two or three Democrats. One of these is Mr. Robinson, the able Senator from Sacramento, and the Whigs are quite curious to know whether he will accept. If he does, of course he cannot take his seat as a member of the State Senate. A new election would be ordered, and the Whigs hope to be able to squeeze in one of their own partizans. They know, also, that if, even though he does accept, he will hold the position only so long as his politics can be represented at Washington, and off goes his official head. So that a double purpose would be accomplished. A Democratic Senator would be choused out of his seat, and before he had got warm in his new official seat, conferred by the Whig power at Washington, he would be superceded to make room for a Fillmore man, and thus the party would have him out of the way altogether.

We do not fancy that the game will be successful. The probability is, as our correspondent from Sacramento suggests, that Mr. Robinson will not accept the appointment, tendered him by the national administration, but that he will serve California in a more important and responsible position. The country requires his services in the Senate, and they will no doubt be promptly yielded, with his customary fidelity and ability.

"CORRECTION."—A paragraph in yesterday's News, under this head, by one of our assistants, speaks of an article in the previous issue, in reference to the "abuse of seamen," written by the other, as "unadvised," &c., and as doing great injustice to Capt. Smith. As this is a matter that could only have properly been attended to by the writer of the article on the "abuse of seamen," who is ready to meet the responsibility of what he says, we must withdraw the "correction" of yesterday, and refer Capt. Smith to our Junior Assistant.

MAIL STEAMER.—The Oregon, one of the best and fastest boats of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., sails to-morrow for Panama. Her officers are of the right stamp, and as the bearer to California of the news of our admission, the Oregon will always be regarded with a high degree of favor. The mail will probably close at the Post Office about one o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon.

DEATHS BY CHOLERA.—By the reports of the Board of Health, we perceive that the number of cases of cholera since Monday last, up to yesterday noon, were fifty-five. Number of deaths in the same time, twenty-four.

For the twenty-four hours ending yesterday noon, there were 24 cases, and 16 deaths reported.

HEALTH OF SAN JOSE.—We learn that very little sickness exists at San Jose, the cholera having very nearly disappeared. Two deaths only by the latter have occurred for some days past. The impression that the cholera was raging to a considerable extent seems not to be well founded.

THE NEW ORLEANS.—If this steamer sailed from Panama as soon as the 10th inst. (as it was reported she would) she is fully due to-day. We have an interest in her arrival which occasions us to look for her with no small degree of impatience.

DEAD.—Charles Beckett, who was shot by a private watchman in Pacific street, while attempting to carry off a cask of ale, died of his wounds on Thursday. Thomas James, the watchman, has been released on bail.

GRATIFYING FORBEARANCE!—A paper up town withholds a "definite opinion" of the merits of Mrs. Kirby, as an actress! Why hold the thunderbolt suspended over a devoted head?

ISSUE OF CITY SCRIP.

A resolution passed the Board of Aldermen about two weeks since, calling upon the Comptroller for information in regard to the amount of scrip issued, and for what purposes. In a morning paper of yesterday, we find a tabular statement, from which we learn that the condition of the finances, on the 27th inst., was as follows, being the entire amount of scrip which has been issued, and the purposes to which it has been applied:

The old Ayuntiamento left us in debt about $200,000, and contracts to complete, to the amount of $250,000, most of which has been paid in scrip. About $80,000 are due in taxes, and a balance of $10,000 on water lots. The licenses amount to about $8,000 per month.

The city property is very valuable. The assessors estimated the value of the surveyed lands at $877,000, and in arriving at this sum they followed the same rule as when estimating private property for taxation. The piers belonging to the city, and the unsurveyed lands will altogether, it is stated, amount to nearly $500,000 The report of Mr. Wheeler, the Commissioner appointed to search out the records, will make its appearance very shortly. It will be found that there is more territory belonging to the pueblo than has heretofore been claimed.

UNION OF THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY—The two sections of the Democratic party of New York met in convention at Syracuse, and united harmoniously upon a State ticket, and adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Democratic party o New York are proud to avow their fraternity with, and their devotion to the great principles of the Democratic party of the Union, as declared at the Democratic National Convention of 1844 and 1848, and they look forward in hope and confidence to the complete triumph of that party in 1852.

JENNY LIND THEATRE.—"The Lady of Lyons" was produced at this establishment, last evening, with a very creditable cast. Played well, it is one of the most beautiful melodramas ever put upon the stage; if badly, its imperfections are the most glaring. We hear little complaint of last night's performance. This evening Richard Third will be performed.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.—Public worship will be held by the First Presbyterian Church, (Rev. A Williams'.) according to the Governor's Proclamation, THIS DAY, in the Superior Court Room, City Hall. Services to commence at eleven o'clock, in the forenoon.

FUN ALIVE.—Nightly a crowd passes an evening full of enjoyment at the Dramatic Museum, and always come away satisfied that they have received full value for their money. Look at the bill for to-night, and purchase your tickets early.

☞ Robt. P. Noah, of the U. S. brig Dolphin, at Saucelito, desires tidings of Mr. Joseph Jackson, of N. York, or of Mr. Joseph N. Jackson, his son, who came out to this country in the schooner Samuel M. Fox.

THE ILLUSTRATED NEWS.—The sixth number of this publication was placed upon our table yesterday. It fully sustains the reputation already gained. It can be had at Cook & Lecount's, Montgomery street.

THE SELMA.—An evening cotemporary speaks of the bark Selma a having been put up by Cronise & Brother. This is doing injustice to Callard & Co., the well-known shipping agents, who put up this vessel.

THE MAILS.—The mails for the Atlantic States and Europe, will close at the Post-Office to-morrow afternoon, at 1 o'clock.

DOWN TO A SPOT!—A jury in a case recently at Marysville, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $246,65 and one quarter of a cent!

PRESENTMENT OF THE GRAND JURY.

This body closed its sittings last evening. We have only room, today, for some extracts from their final report. It is drawn up with much clearness and ability. After suitable introductory remarks, they go on to say:

"First on the list of vices practised with the most glaring effrontery and presumption, is that of Gambling, which is, by day and by night, in our most public thoroughfares, presenting all the enticements of courtezans, ardent spirits and music, to corrupt the morals of our citizens, and rob from the unwary and unsuspecting, that for which they have labored, to make comfortable and happy the homes of their families and themselves. How many have arrived here with the hard-earned product of their exertions in the mines—have listened to the fatal songs of the syren of gaming—and awaking from their transports, found all swept away in a single night, by those arts which our authorities have allowed to exist unforbidden and unpunished, among us! The murders that have already been committed in our gambling saloons, attributable, as they undoubtedly are, to the evil excitements that are inseparable from them, is of itself a sufficient reason why the vice should be as thoroughly suppressed here, as it is in every city of all the other States of our Union. We strongly urge that our Common Council and the State Legislature should take prompt, energetic action on this subject, so vital to the character of our city.

Enactments should be immediately made, and enforced most rigorously, against the pernicious practice of carrying deadly weapons. No man's life is safe, if every drunken brawler be permitted to carry pistols in his pockets.

Something, also, should be done in reference to the numerous brothels which are increasing in, and infesting our city.

The ordinances against fast driving, and the desecration of the Sabbath, should be, by our police, more rigidly enforced.

The degrading and brutal exhibitions of prize-fighting, should not again be allowed within the limits of our county."

The subject of the practice of vending "unwholsome meats," is next very properly alluded to, and the erection of "markets" is recommended for the inspection and sale of meats, vegetables, fish, &c.

"The City Hospital," now located in the Waverly House, they very correctly say, is entirely inadequate, uncomfortable, and uncalculated for the purpose for which it is used." The patients are crowded together; have not proper shelter from changes of weather; no arrangements for bathing are furnished them. The bedding is filthy. No nurses are employed at night. A blacksmith's shop endangers the lives of all the inmates of said Hospital. A suitable building under different management, "is fervently recommended and asked for."

The City Prison next comes in for a share of the wholesome scrutiny shown by the Grand Inquest of the county. The station house and brig Euphemia are both shown to be utterly inappropriate for every season for the purposes to which the are applied. The fare and bedding of prisoners are also subjects of complaint.

The proper security against fire, &c., of the records, is next urged on the earliest attention of the Common Council.

They recommend "an extension of the powers of the Recorder's Court, in consequence of the delay in the administration of justice, from the length of time elapsing between the sittings of the District Court.

They speak in terms of commendation of the officers of the Police department, and bear witness to the zealous assiduity of the city Marshal.

In conclusion, the Grand Jury return their thanks to the honorable the Judge of the District Court, to the District Attorney, and to deputy sheriff Powers. Signed,

WM. S. GRAHAM, Foreman.

Grand Jury Room, City Hall, Nov. 29th, 1850.

A BENEFIT.—Old "Jupiter," of the Model Artistes, takes a benefit to-night, being the last appearance but one of the troupe.

To-morrow evening a series of scriptural representations will be given, to which the religious portion of the community are especially invited.

WHEAT CROP OF CANADA.—The Toronto papers estimate the surplus wheat of Upper Canada this season at 7,000,000, bushels more than last, which was 4,000,000—making 11,000,000 bushels that will be sent to our markets.

DISCHARGED.—We stated on Thursday morning, that a young lad named Edmund Coy had been committed for examination on a charge of robbing a safe. We are glad to say that he was yesterday discharged, there being no evidence against him.

DEATH OF ISAAC N. JONES, ESQ.

We cannot more appropriately announce the lamented death, by cholera, of Isaac N. Jones, Esq., of the law firm of Willer, Kinder & Jones, than by giving place to the following proceedings of the Bar of San Jose. In the feeling of painful regret expressed, all who know him freely participate:

At a meeting of the members of the Bar held at the court house in the city of San Jose, California, the Hon. John H. Watson, Judge of the Third Judicial District, was called to the chair, and H. C. Malone, Clerk of the District Court of Santa Clara county, was appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly explained by the Chairman, when Hon. W. Van Voorhies, submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

To die is the lot of all. Though conscious of this solem truth, we cannot, however, when death comes into our midst and cuts down one in the prime of life, with every prospect of earthly happiness before him, restrain the common feelings of our nature, and lament the incomprehensible but unquestionably wise fiat which decrees it. ISAAC N. JONES is no more! But yesterday he moved in our midst with as high hopes and bright anticipations as cheered the hearts of any; to-day he reposes in the silent chambers of death. May the close of his earthly career teach us to appreciate "what shadows we are and what shadows we pursue!"

Resolved, That we have heard with feelings of unfeigned sorrow, and deep commiseration of the sudden death of Isaac N. Jones, a member of the Bar.

Resolved, That by this inscrutable visitation of Infinite Wisdom, society at large, as well as the legal, profession are made to lament the loss of one of their most useful, active and upright members, to whose worth as a citizen and integrity as a lawyer, this inadequte tribute is offered by his fellows and brothers

Resolved, That with the bereaved and sorrowing family of our deceased brother we earnestly condole and deeply sympathize, feeling that the loss sustained by them snaps a link in the domestic chain which Heaven alone can reunite—the link of a father's affection and a husband's love.

Resolved, That in token of respect to the memory of the deceased the members of the Bar of this city wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted by the Secretary to the afflicted widow and family; and to the Pacific News, California Courier, and St. Joseph Gazette, St. Joseph, Mo., for publication.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions, be entered upon the minutes of the next District Court for the County of Santa Clara.

JOHN H. WATSON, Chairman.
H. C. MALONE, Secretary.

Correspondence of the Pacific News:

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 28th.

A few days since I noticed an article in the Courier, over the signature of "Stubbs," giving an account of our late election for Councilmen, and rather trumpeting the result as a proof of Whig ascendancy in Sacramento. Now, as it happens, this election was no party test at all. On the contrary, the gentlemen who have succeeded in being elected, may attribute their success more to a determination of the citizens to beat a certain amalgamated ticket, which was attempted to be thrust upon them by a so-called 'committee' of Whigs and Democrats, than to any principles of whiggery. In fact, one of the highest candidates, who was only beaten by six votes, is a staunch Democrat, and yet the Courier correspondent classed him with the successful Whigs.

So much for the past. The future will be more tinctured with partyism, and as the vacancy in the Legislature from this county is soon to be filled, the Democrats must be wide awake and careful in their movements, or else, where they have without much doubt the strength to succeed, they may be sadly defeated. The Whigs have already nominated their candidate.

The Squatters have called a convention to nominate also, and the Democrats are to meet for the same purpose, next Saturday.

Among the list of candidates is D. O. Lisle, whig, H. O. Schoolcraft, (don't know) F. W. Thayer, democrat, Geo. E. Montgomery, democrat. This last gentleman is one of the counsel in behalf of Dr. Robinson and Mr. Caulfield, in the Squatter cases, and has taken considerable interest in their behalf. He would make a good representative.

Mr. Robinson, appointed Collector here, will hardly accept, for no doubt three months would turn him out, or as soon as his politics are known.

I write to you as to an organ of the Democratic party, having none of that class here, and feeling interested in the success of DEMOCRACY

COMMON COUNCIL.

There was no session of the first Board, a quorum not being present.

BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN.—At the meeting of the Board last evening, the ordinance authorizing the purchase of the Waverly House, to be used as a City Hospital, was passed. We need only refer our readers to the presentment of the Grand Jury, to show the eligibility of this measure. The bill for granting a salary to the Treasurer's Clerk, was passed. The bill for the payment of $9,500 for the Ocean House, was passed. A resolution authorizing the Board of Health to sell sufficient scrip to raise $5,000, was concurred in.

SUICIDE.—Joseph Preston committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, in a house in Vallejo street, on Thursday morning. Verdict of the coroner's jury in accordance with the facts.

INTERESTING FROM NEVADA CITY.

We learn several interesting items from a gentleman just down from Nevada City.

For several weeks past no business of any consequence in the mercantile line has been done. The stores are generally supplied with large stocks of goods, and transactions were dull, except in the article of sheet iron, for which there was a demand.

The great difficulty with many, and which made money matters rather tight, was the want of rain to wash out earth that had been thrown up. During the entire summer a large portion of the miners have been engaged in throwing up dirt from the numerous ravines in the vicinity of Nevada. The recent rains, however, will enliven business, and things will now assume a brisk appearance.

The fall of rain will preclude coyota mining any farther this season, as the holes which have been sunk to great depth will rapidly fill with water, and the earth being porous, will cave in, making it dangerous to prosecute the work. Shafts have been sunk in many of the hills, which have yielded productively, and by another season they will be worked in every direction. We have been informed that, in some of the shafts that have been sunk, the yield has been from $200 to $1000 per day. This will induce many to engage in the work hereafter.

On Sunday week, a fracas occurred at one of one of the public saloons at Nevada, between some sailors and gamblers. During the melee, a man by the name of William Wallace, of Philadelphia, was shot in the side. The wound, though dangerous, is not thought to be mortal. A crowd soon gathered, who were greatly excited, and yelled fiercely for the execution of the miner's law—"hemp and the nearest tree." The culprit escaped, however, on hors back, leaving his coat behind.

We understand that vigorous efforts are being made in Nevada to divide the county; or else remove the county seat from Marysville to that city. Strong representations will be made to the Legislature on this point, and it is thought that they will be successful in one of their demands—either in a division of the county, or a removal of the seat of justice. The people of Nevada contend that two-thirds of the entire population of the county reside in the immediate vicinity of their city, and that they can see no good reason why they should be compelled to travel sixty miles to a court of justice, to accommodate a small portion of the people.—[Sac. Transcript.

CALIFORNIA GOLD.

The New York Herald, in an article upon the prospects and prosperity of California, makes the following remark:

"The estimates of gold for the present have been made as high as eighty millions of dollars. Some financiers think the yield may equal one hundred millions of dollars, or even more. Certainly the products of the mines will not be much less than the former sum. What, then, will be the influence of such an influx of gold upon the relations of commerce? What results will spring from renewed activity on the part of the Californians, excited, as it will be, by the many advantages under which they will labor? Why, it is evident that a great trade will be opened up on the Pacific, in which China, India, and eventually Japan, will take a busy part. This great movement of mankind—for the world will be interested and engaged in it—will produce an immense effect upon the nations of the earth; and with our intercourse with San Francisco, New York will become the commercial centre of the entire world. The effects of the mercantile action of this community will be immense. Already our large amount of imports begins to diminish. New supplies are demanded, and California keeps us in a state of remarkable activity. The European nations also profit by this commercial revolution. Their poor population is employed more largely than for the last twenty-five years, and we are the recipients of much of the wealth arising from such remarkable enterprise. Since the discovery of this continent by Columbus, the world has never seen so great a train of magnificent results springing up to attract the attention, and to add to the happiness of mankind."

FINAL RAPPING.—The Rochester women are no longer to have the knocking spirits at their beck exclusively. A formidable competitor has arisen in the person of the well known Le Roy Sunderland, whose daughter does the thing as neatly as the Rochesterians.

A gentleman in the vicinity of Boston lately invested thirty-nine dollars in cigars, to be sent to California By the last steamer he received the following: "Your cigars, (3000) are sold, and brought four hundred and fifty dollars!"

PROSPECTUS
SAN DIEGO HERALD.

"There the large olive rains its amber store
In marble fonts; there grain, and flower, and fruit,
Gush from the earth until the land runs o'er." [Byron.

The undersigned beg leave to announce to the public of California generally, and to the English-speaking population of Southern California in particular, that they intend to publish a newspaper at San Diego, under the above title, the first number of which will be issued about the first of January, proximo.

Terms of subscription, $12 per annum. In politics, the San Diego Herald will be independent, but not neutral; it will be the organ and engine of no party,—but the impartial advocate of such measures as shall seem best calculated to promote the general welfare of the State, and advance the local interests and property of Southern California, or more immediately of the District of San Diego.

Its design, however, will by no means be to engender any sectional jealousies, or to encourage any measures at variance with the unity and harmony of the State. Its paramount object will be to describe the localities and unfold the resources of "the sunny and luxuriant regions of the South"—to watch over their social and administrative interests,—and to promote their welfare by every legitimate means and influence which the press can employ.

To the American residents in Southern California, the publishers will look for their principal support; and considering the expense of the undertaking and its immediate importance to the local interests of San Diego, is is hoped that the publication will meet with liberal encouragement. Among the inhabitants, however, of the Northern districts, the San Diego Herald will expect to have many readers desirous to obtain authentic information and periodical intelligence from the South.

J. JUDSON AMES & Co.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 15th, 1850.

To the Editor of the Daily Pacific News—

SIR: You will confer a great favor by giving the within a few insertions in your valuable sheet, for the benefit of your readers and the community at large, that tney may be satisfied with the affair that occurred a few months ago, concerning the elopement of my daughter from her husband, Isaac Graham. The reward offered for Jesse J. Graham, you will please insert for six months, and oblige

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
MARY BENNETT.

SEPTEMBER 27th, 1850.

MRS. MARY BENNETT—

DEAR MOTHER: I presume that you are very much surprised at my sudden departure. I was very sorry to leave without telling you I was going, but I knew that you and my brothers and sister would not let me come away; and I was so tired of being beat and having bowie knives drawn over me, (for twice that old brute Graham drew his bowie knife across my throat till the blood ran down my breast, and I expected every day he would kill me,) and finding it impossible to please the old tyrant, I believed that my only chance was to leave him or be murdered by his hand. So I thought it would be better for me to go to a foreign country, where I would not be troubled with him any more. I see by the Daily Pacific News of the 16th of May, that I have been accused of having a lover with me, which you and the citizens of Santa Cruz pronounce to be false, and which is absolutely false. I did not nor never will degrade myself so far as that; and I see by the same paper that you and my brothers and sister have been cruelly treated on account of my departure, of which you all are innocent. I left without the assistance or knowledge of any of you. I would not take so much trouble to tell of your innocence, but I wish you to show this, my handwriting, to all the people, wherein I state that, let who will say that either my mother, brothers or sister assisted me to get away, or knew anything about it, they tell a positive lie, and the truth is not in them. The paper did not state what had happened exactly; it said Mary Ann had been honorably acquitted of being accessory to my flight, and that Jackson offered two thousand dollars, and the county of Santa Cruz one thousand dollars for Jesse Graham. I am very sorry to see that my child was brought as a witness against my innocent sister, which Graham himself was the murderer. I say he murdered it, because it was abuse that I received from him. His hands was its death. Instead of my living with a lover, I am living in a worthy man's family, after a voyage of four months I have suffered very much from sickness, and my children have both had some sickness, and are not in very good health now, but they are about. I am miserable since I heard that news. I wish I had stayed and been murdered by his hands; it would have been better for me to die than to live and know that my dear people had suffered so wrongfully; perhaps suffered death on account of my departure As I said before, I am living in a worthy Englishman's family, but I shall never be happy again in this world. I hope these few lines I have traced by candlelighht may find you alive and well, but I am afraid they will not. If we meet no more in this world, I hope we may meet in Heaven above. May God be with you all; my children are baptised, and I shall be soon; give my love to all my friends, my dear brothers and sisters, while I remain your ever affectionate daughter, CATHERINE GRAHAM.

LOOK AT THIS, EMIGRANTS AND OTHERS!

300 FAMILIES WANTED, WHO wish Homes. Having completed my survey in the southern part of the city of San Jose, in all 900 lots, 25 by 47 1-2 varas, and being desirous to have improvements go on rapidly, I propose to give 300 lots to settlers who will build a neat, suitable house on each lot, and fence the same.

I have also over 100 lots, 50 varas square, in the Old Survey of the city, which I will sell low, and give time on part. The lots I own in the Old and New surveys of the city are decidedly the best locations for buildings, being high and dry, and never subject to overflow; with the very best mountain water, obtained at the depth of 12 to 14 feet.

I think lumber shippers would do well to call and take a look at my lots. I will give them lots to build houses on, or will exchange lots for lumber of all kinds, or houses.

THE VALLEY.—We have a greater number of acres equal to the best Illinois land, than can be seen in any other north or east of us, in California; and the grain-growing portions of the world, so far as I am acquainted, cannot equal us in producing wheat, both in quality and quantity: 60 bushels have been raised to the acre, and there can be seen now in the fields and gardens of our farmers, as fine crops as a majority of the States can produce at and vegetables of all kinds in abundance growing, and that too, without rain or watering.

CLIMATE AND HEALTH—Listen, now:—The average summer heat is 75 to 80 degs., with cool nights; no. musquitoes, day or night; no fever and ague, and no disease peculiar to the valley or town, winter or summer.—We have some of the first settlers living with us yet, over 100 years of age, and one in particular, over 110, sound in body and mind. We have had but one death out of the immigration of 1846, an old gentleman, who was broken down with disease before he came to our city.

THE MORALS of our city and vicinity will, I make no doubt, compare with those of the best of our neighboring cities and towns. We are a law abiding and a law supporting people, and have our churches and schools as well as others.

Persons wishing lots will apply soon to the subscriber in the south end of the city. JAMES F. REED.

KLAMATH GOLD MINES, River and Town.—One of the most extensive fields for speculation at present in California.

The attention of the public is now called to this very important part of California. The town of Klamath is situated on the bank and at the vicinity of the mouth of a river, upon the numerous tributaries of which the most productive and extensive gold mines have been discovered of any now in existence in California. The Harbor (at the upper end of which this beautiful town site is situated) is both commodious and secure, and possesses the very superior advantage over all the other ports upon the coast between the Columbia river and San Francisco of a perfectly safe entrance. The river is a magnificent stream and navigable by steamers, according to the opinion of steamboat captains and others in every way competent to judge of the matter, at least 70 miles up; at, and even below which point, these very rich gold mines commence. Merchants and capitalists who are desirous of realizing a handsome profit upon their goods and an enormous return for their capital cannot enter into a better speculation or make a more safe investment of their means in any part of California, from the fact that there are at present about 2000 miners at work upon this river and its tributaries; and there is every reason to believe, from the numerous satisfactory statements of the miners, relative to their success during the last year, that next year there will be many times the number. The immediate rush to these mines from all parts will be immense, and in fact almost unprecedented; and this town, which may be said to be adjacent, in consequence of the water communication into the very heart of them, must and will undoubtedly be insured a speedy and almost magic growth, and by this time next year will be a very respectable rival to (if not totally eclipsing,) Sacramento and Stockton. Miners who have, during the last summer expended to such a deplorable extent their useless toil and labor in the southern mines, and have actually lost money in the place of making it, by the unsuccessful and numerous damming operations, and the scarcity of gold there, are strongly recommended to turn their attention to these mines, as the average amount dug last year, putting it at an infinitely lower estimate than from the statements of the miners we would be warranted in putting it, one ounce per day to the man. This alone is sufficient to justify the opinion that there is ample room for more, and when it is taken into consideration that not over one tenth part of the gold region has as yet been explored, the certainty of room is rendered beyond doubt. The enormous tax upon the miners for packing of provisions will next year be effectually obviated by the aid of water communication, which extends into the very heart of the mines. Goods can be taken from the deck of steamers by the miners in the place of the pack-saddle of the mule, and provisions now furnished at an expense of $1 50 for the mere packing, can be afforded for ten cents, thus enabling the miner to lay by the fruits of their labor, instead of expending so great a quota for subsistence. To persons wishing to invest capital to an advantage in town lots, an almost unparalleled money making speculation is now open; as lots at the present time can be procured at a comparatively low figure, and the price that they will be disposed of next spring will be high. Arrangements have been made for a steamer to ply between the town and the mines, which will warrant to miners the supply of provisions forthwith.

A map of the town and river can be seen at Messrs. Shultz & Palmer's, foot of Jackson street; at Bullett & Patrick's, corner of Jackson and Sansome streets; and at Worthington, Beale & Bunting's.

Any required information respecting the Mines, River, Town and Harbor, by application to Mr. John Gray, at Messrs. Schultz & Palmer, or to Mr. T. Bunting, at the firm of Worthington, Beale & Bunting, on Montgomery street. o16

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE of California, District of the County of Santa Clara: Jose De Arnaz vs. Genoveva Garcia Mangel, Emanuel Mangel and Lorenzo Geoffrey. Petition to foreclose mortgage, &c.

Whereas, JOSE DE ARNAZ filed in this Court on the 16th day of May, 1850, his petition, showing, among other things, that on the 20th day of December, 1849, Genoveva Garcia Mangel, the wife of Emanuel Mangel, was the owner in fee of a certain house and lot in San Jose, adjoining and in the rear of the house lately occupied by Messrs. Larrain, Benitez & Co., and fronting on Garcia street, did on that day mortgage the same, with the consent of Emanuel Mangel, her husband, to said Arnaz, to secure the sum of five hundred and sixty dollars, payable four months from date: That afterwards, on or about the 15th day of January, 1850, said Emanuel Mangel and Genoveva G. Mangel executed a mortgage on the same premises to one Geoffrey, of San Francisco, for about fourteen hundred dollars; which said mortgage was falsely dated the 19th of December, 1849, with intent to defeat the prior mortgage lien on said real estate, and to cheat and defraud said petitioner out of his debt. Said petitioner prays discovery and full answer to the above facts, that said mortgage to Geoffrey be set aside as fraudulent, and that said premises be sold to pay petitioners's mortgage, and for general relief.

And it being proved by affidavit to the satisfaction of this Court that Emanuel Mangel is a non-resident of this State, notice is hereby given to Emanuel Mangel to be and appear before the Honorable Court of the Third Judicial District, for the County of Santa Clara, on the fourth Monday of December, 1850, at the court house in San Jose, then and there to answer said petition, or, in default thereof, the allegation therein contained will be heard in your absence and decreed accordingly.

Given under my hand and private seal, there being no seal of office yet provided at this office, this 24th of May, A. D. 1850.

Stewart, against yourselves and James A. Forbes, Robert Walkenshaw, and John Parrott, filed in the Clerk's Office of said court at San Jose, on the 5th day of October, 1850, by the said plaintiffs, to recover from you the possession of a certain tract of land; being a portion of the Rancho de la Canada de los Capitancillas, alias San Vicente, and bounded and described as follows, viz: all the western portion of said rancho lying between the rancho de las Capitancillas, belonging to William Wiggins, and the arroyo de los Alamitos, with a tract lying east of and along said arroyo, of half a mile in width, and running to the Sierra, which land, and more especially the Mine, Hacienda, and appurtenances of New Almaden, thereon situate, the said plaintiffs claim as their property, and that you unlawfully retain possession thereof since the first day of February, 1845. Wherefore they pray to have you ejected from the same, and to recover from you seven hundred thousand dollars, as the rents and profits thereof since the said 1st day of February, 1845, and also three hundred thousand dollars damages for the trespasses and wrongs by you committed thereon. And you are notified that unless you appear and answer said complaint at the time and place mentioned, that the same will be heard upon default and a decree entered accordingly.
